What is Constitution day?

Constitution Day (National Law Day), also known as Samvidhan Divas, is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950.

Topic

About the Competition

Rights of children have been embodied under Part III (Fundamental Rights) of the Constitution of India. As children are the future of our country, they must be aware of their rights. With the same motive, School of Business and Law has organized a Online Poster Making Competition for school students on the occasion of Constitution Day. Our aim is to generate a thought process which in turn will create an awareness on the topic.
